

Heard At School

Miss Betty Caldwell was very pleasantly surprised on receiving a letter from one of her Norwegian admirers. A part of it read as follows:

"I come from Norway last month to Medicine Hat for to live in Canada. How much cost farm to live by you, so we could be good friends."

Betty excitedly read this letter to a certain young man who was very amused by the whole episode. On being questioned about his amusement he confessed he had written the letter.

Better luck next time Betty.

Jimmy Brown's favorite theme song these days is "I'm in the Army Now."

P. S. He's not a cadet.

On the return trip from Calgary, May 26th, this is how the conductor called the stations:

Blackey!—Next stop (calmly).

Vulcan!—Next stop (loudly).

Champion!—Hurrah! (throwing his hat in the air and pushing them hurriedly out the door).

Funny isn't it how some conductors don't appreciate good music and cheering.

On arriving at school Monday morning each student was pounced on by the two Ditto sisters who were screaming excitedly, "We got a baby brother."

Local Member Has Exalted Duty

While the King and Queen visited Calgary and other provincial points last week the official welcome on behalf of his subjects of this province will be tendered on Friday at Edmonton when an address of welcome will be given in the Legislature.

It is especially interesting to note that the local member of the Legislature, Hon. Peter Dawson will have the honor of introducing the King and Queen to the members of the Legislature, and their wives as well as others invited which include state and church dignitaries. Hon. Mr. Dawson will be introduced to their Majesties by Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie

King, Prime Minister of Canada and in turn Hon. Mr. Dawson introduces the guests to the others. This is the duty of the Speaker of the House and the same procedure has been followed in the other provinces, indicating the exalted position which the office of Speaker really is in our parliamentary form of government.

Needless to say Mrs. Dawson will of course be joint hostess for the occasion and will be in attendance at all the various state and civic functions. Hon. and Mrs. Dawson left on Monday morning for Edmonton and will be absent from Champion for about ten days.

Co-Operation Of Pupils Sought School Board Support Teachers

At a special meeting of the School Board held last week, among other items taken up was the attitude of some of the pupils towards their work, that of allowing other interests to come before studies.

It was stressed that when failures occur parents and the public attach blame to the educational system whereas in many instances the cause could be traced to lack of application of the students. During the past term there has been numerous examples, it was stated, of where students forgot their obligation to their studies for other attractions.

When pupils are away from school it not only affects the standing of the pupil so away but lowers the efficiency of the whole school. It is most difficult to lay down hard and fast rules as if the school were a jail or reform school, as to what attention should be paid to homework and actual attendance but the attitude of the Board, and this paper was asked to make a note of it, is that there must be co-operation between the Board, parent and pupil if the high standing of the Champion school is to be maintained. The teachers cannot do it alone and there must be more of a school spirit engendered which will draw upon those who neglect their study except for sickness.

The School Board are endeavoring to do their utmost to keep the standing of Champion school high and the co-operation of all is sought towards this worthy object.

Mrs. A. H. Siegel and two sons are visiting in Minneapolis.

Royal Visit a Turning Point

From reports appearing in eastern papers coming to the editor's desk it is evident that a renewed confidence is daily growing as a result of the visit of their Majesties.

The apathetic feeling that the Dominion was in the grip of world conditions, that Canadians could do nothing worth while to solve their own problems is rapidly passing. Apathy is giving place to vigor.

Through the enthusiasm of the King and the inspiration from our Queen Canadians have caught an increased confidence in their future.

The editor of Saturday night under the caption 'Royal visit turns Business tides' writes.

'There is a very strong probability that the visit of the King and Queen will mark, in future graphs of the volume of business, a turning point from a period of extreme dullness and apathy into one of relatively vigorous forward movement.'

He adds: It has planted the seed of the conviction that remedy for Canadian difficulties is largely in the hands of Canadians, and that the nation is neither too weak nor too unintelligent to work effectively for its own return to prosperity.'

Canada's reception of the King and Queen has crowded the dictators off the front pages of the world. It has focussed attention as never before on this country. There is general realization of the value of this unprecedented advertising to the Dominion.

But, as remarked before, the greatest value to Canada is in the realization by Canadians of their own opportunities.

Railway Problem

A unique record vote took place in the Senate last week when the majority report of the special committee investigating the railway problem was defeated and a minority finding written by Hon. Arthur Meighen adopted. The amendment that of unification of the two railway systems is the direct opposite to that adopted by the Conservative convention lately and statement of the Conservative Leader Dr. Manion. The Liberals, and some of the Conservatives in the senate want more co-operation between the two systems with an officer to force such co-operation where it is desirable.

The Chronicle has been receiving the reports of the special Railway committee which has met for the past few months but we admit frankly that we are not in a position to find a solution to the problem. We are more inclined to the belief of Dr. Manion and the Liberals that unification in itself will not solve the railway situation. Indeed there are so many factors which enter into the scrapping of lines and amalgamation of services that it is an involved matter.

The government report, supported by several Conservatives in the Senate would appear to be one of the best solutions. We have personally found the pool system of trains effective while joint use of terminal facilities has reduced the overhead of both railways. It is easy for the public to blame the political parties for not acting but a careful policy is essential. The public can be assured that the Government are doing their utmost to deal with this vexing problem in a sane and business like manner.

Legislation

MATERNAL WELFARE

This act empowers Lieutenant Governor in council on the recommendation of the Minister of health to provide grants of not more than $15. to expectant mothers who may need assistance. It also provides for appointment of additional district nurses in areas where existing nursing facilities are inadequate.

The Commission is empowered to require any person who holds out or uses any substance or method of treatment as a cancer cure to make full disclosure with regard thereto to the commission and to investigate same. Minister may make public any report so made if he thinks it is in the public interest.

This is Life Insurance

IN THOUSANDS OF Canadian homes, life insurance money pays the bills—helps to support widows and children—and provides for old age.

Life insurance dollars buy the food for three square meals a day. They buy clothing and other necessities of life. They pay the rent and fuel bills to ensure warm, comfortable homes. They give children an education and a mother's care.

Each year, life insurance policy-owners and their beneficiaries in Canada receive 150 million dollars—five hundred thousand dollars every working day—twenty thousand dollars every hour.

And it is significant that more than 75% of all life insurance payments are made to living policyholders.
